NEVADAN BRUCE JAMES BRINGS HOME JOBS

Public Printer James to Meet with Silver State Printers

Washington, D.C.—Thousands of private sector printers across the country already do business with the U.S. Government Printing Office (GPO). Now, Nevadan Bruce James, who heads the federal agency in Washington, D.C., would like to see companies in his home state reap the benefits of doing business with the GPO.

WHAT: Nevadan Bruce James
Public Printer of the United States
CEO, U.S. Government Printing Office (GPO)
Speaks at the Las Vegas Craftsmen Club monthly dinner meeting

WHEN: Thursday, June 17, 2004
7:30 p.m.

WHERE: Rio Hotel & Casino, Barrel Room
3700 West Flamingo Road, Las Vegas, NV 89103

WHY: Public Printer James discusses business opportunities for Nevada companies. Doing business with the GPO will help increase company profits while boosting the state's economy.

NOTES: The GPO will be holding a seminar for Nevada printers earlier in the afternoon on how to do business with the GPO. GPO west coast representatives will be present to conduct the workshop and answer any questions from participants.

ABOUT THE GPO:

The U.S. Government Printing Office (GPO) is responsible for the production and distribution of information products and services for all three branches of the Federal Government. More than 250,000 Federal Government document titles are now available to the public via the Internet at www.gpoaccess.gov. Printed copies of many of those documents ranging from Supreme Court opinions to reports from the Bureau of Labor Statistics may also be ordered through the GPO's web site www.gpo.gov or by calling toll-free 866-512-1800. The GPO, through partnership with 1,250 libraries participating in the Federal Depository Library Program, provides personal assistance in locating and using Government information. Participating libraries may be located on GPO's web site or by calling toll-free 1-888-293-6498.

ABOUT THE LAS VEGAS CRAFTSMEN:

It's a volunteer organization created for members of the graphics arts community. During monthly general meetings and activities, members have the opportunity to participate in programs that address industry issues and network with other graphics arts professionals.
